Filmmaker Skizz Cyzyk and his Producer Jen Talbert talk about their new documentary ICEPICK TO THE MOON about the musician Rev. Fred Lane. They talk about the process of making the movie, their rock star DIY approach to touring the film around the country, and what separates the good from bad when it comes to film festivals.

ICEPICK TO THE MOON Synopsis – A feature-length documentary about strip-mine crooner, Rev. Fred Lane, and the Raudelunas arts collective of Alabama in the Seventies.
